Mr. Lehman Creates a Year of Change

Mr. Lehman—responsible for school curriculum ... involved in community service in "Leisure time ... "Handling the school district's budget, public relations, and transportation is part of my job" ... to get away from it all—works in his yard, reads ... recommends teachers and other staff members ... a man with a hard job—he handles it well.

Putting Ideas into Action is the Goal of the Principals

Principals are people ... with senses of humor ... really! ... really concerned about the lack of understanding between human beings ... would like to learn to know students ... much paperwork ... little time ... and so-many-students ... solution ... when you see them in the hall, talk to them ... share ideas ... you may find a contemporary thinking person ... like yourself ... really!

Thomas McMillen

Paul Wolfgang

Preparing Students for the Future Is the Task of the Guidance Department

Busy, busy, busy ... "Our work's never done" ... schedule changes ... paperwork piling up ... part-time jobs ... "Our goal is to know each student as an individual" ... arranging college interviews ... parents ... records and transcripts ... college admissions ... "There's something new everyday" ... graduation agenda ... careers ... recommendations ... advice, advice, advice ...

Office Help Keeps School Machine Running Smoothly

Typing ... keeping records ... "Sandy, line 2 please," ... finding the lost and losing the found ... appointments ... excused or not excused—that is the question ... files, files, and more files ... "May I please have your attention for today's announcements" ... "There just aren't enough hours in a day."

Library Is Doubled in Size

Ruth Walter | Nancy Hummel | LaRue Miller | Ella Bowen

Do not enter by the entrance ... leave books, pencils and other valuables outside ... bring only the urge to learn ... Are you sure this author is British? ... Quiet!

Suburban's own angel of mercy ... Sorry, no aspirin ... broken bones and aches and pains—all in a day's work ... testing, testing eyes and ears ... rendering service to fallen Trojans.

(upper right) Knowing that there is a capable nurse on hand is a comfort to the fallen Trojans. (lower left) Apart from the romantic notions of healing the hopelessly ill, the nurse's job includes much paper work. (lower right) First row: Evan Rowe, Lloyd Adams, Hazel May, Sterling Sharp, Donald Haines. Second row: Carl Hoffmaster, Richard Trimmer, James Akins, Eugene Lease, Raymond Geesey.

History Teachers Add Spark to Studies at Suburban

Facts ... facts ... facts ... The Napoleonic Wars ... Renaissance ... Turner Thesis ... doodling in notebooks ... unintelligible notes ... 1492 ... Columbus ... true or false ... 1935 ... multiple guess ... Was Woodrow Wilson really in favor of the League of Nations? ... remember this—next year they will study this year and call it ... history (right) Teachers are not paid only to teach classes. Monitoring lunch sessions is one of the little-known, but necessary, duties. (far right) Bookwork and extra duties make the job of department head a challenging one. (below) Eventually, Mr. Gold will get a response. It requires the ability and dedication of such able teachers as he.

Bali Hai Beckons to York Suburban

It gets worse before it gets better . . . rehearse . . . rehearse . . . arent' you sick of rehearsing? . . . break-a-leg! . . . nuns and natives . . . you've got to be taught . . . a ship-shape tattoo . . . Bali Hai . . . once you have found it never let it go . . .

1970 Is a Year of Change at Suburban

Times change and you change your ideas . . . seasons change and you change your clothes . . . feelings change . . . you change your mind . . . you change a tire or you change a record . . . change is all around us . . . some voluntary . . . some distasteful . . . but one thing is certain . . . change can change the world.

Adrift on Life's Sea

Lost jodhpurs ... No books on stage ... No laughing on stage ... No scenery on stage ... "Horses, Horses, Horses" ... "and I'll deliver it myself!" ... a French maid with an Italian accent ... a villain with a strange English accent ... and a play with an accent on confusion.

Bachelor Father

Battle of the sexes ... Thaaaat's right ... "dancing in the stable with the flies, the hay, and the what-have-you" ... let's run through that scene again ... waterlogged on lemonade ... "velly nice."

(right) Ann Avery strikes a pose before the Thespian play. (upper right) A gun in the ribs serves as Mike Hanish's tool of persuasion. (below) Linda Hook "remembers" the lines the actors forget. (bottom right) John DeLancey looks on as Kathy Parks chats on the phone in Bachelor Father. (far right) Marti Noonan and Krista Spangler do some last minute "cramming" before curtain time.

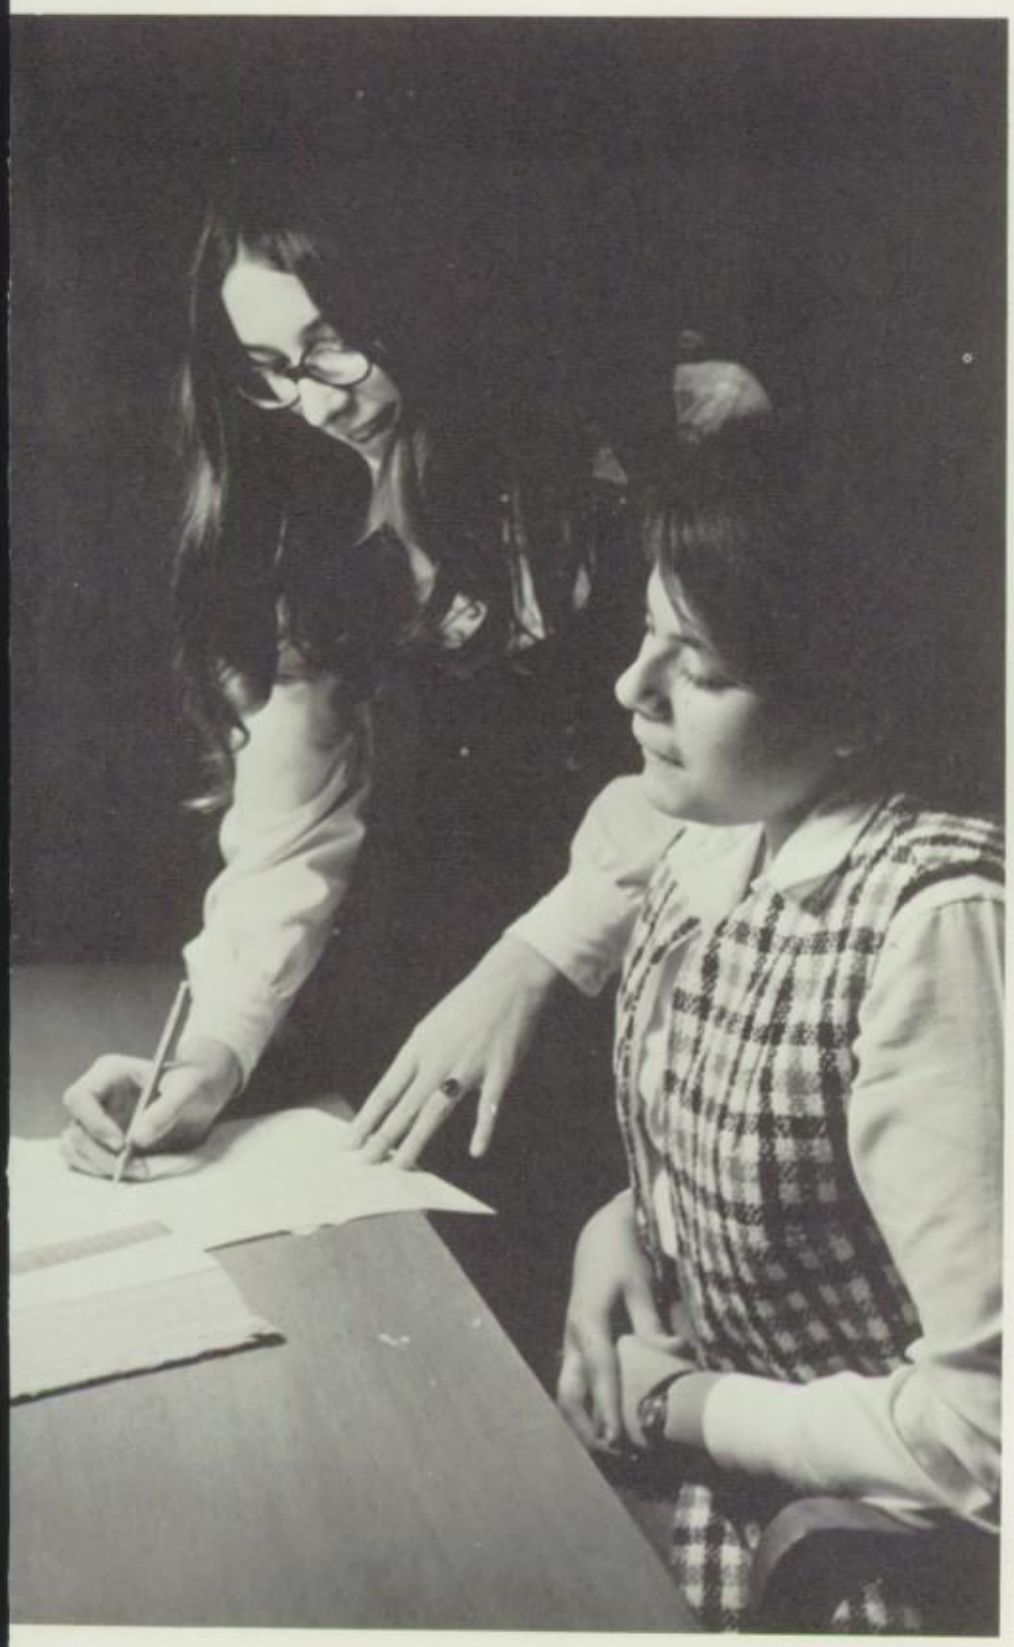
Assemblies Add Variety to the Suburban Schedule

Happiness is . . . a nine period day . . . broken microphones . . . sitting according to homerooms . . . going blind from flashbulbs . . . doing homework in the dark . . . psst-psst . . . a hypnotizing speaker . . . something new this year—a magazine campaign . . . waking up when the bell rings.

(right) Suburban's Deb Bielek vocalizes with "Sing Out York." (bottom left) Becky Harper and Old Saint Nick get into the action of a pep rally. (bottom right) One of the speakers at anti-drug assembly exhorts the students not to risk addiction.



Maria Injects a Bit of Costa Rica Into the Suburban Routine

(above) Three heads are better than one for working on the bridge. (right) Cathy Bernstein adds ingenuity and a little bit of crepe paper to the Prom decorations.

The Prom Transformed the Gym to a Land of Fantasy and Ecstasy

Quarts of hairspray ... sheepish boys tugging at their cummerbunds ... why-thank-you-they're-lovely ... snap goes the camera ... we'll cross that bridge when we come to it ... a "handy" reception ... footprints on hemlines ... sore feet and angel hair and falling crepe paper everywhere ... who scratched the piano?

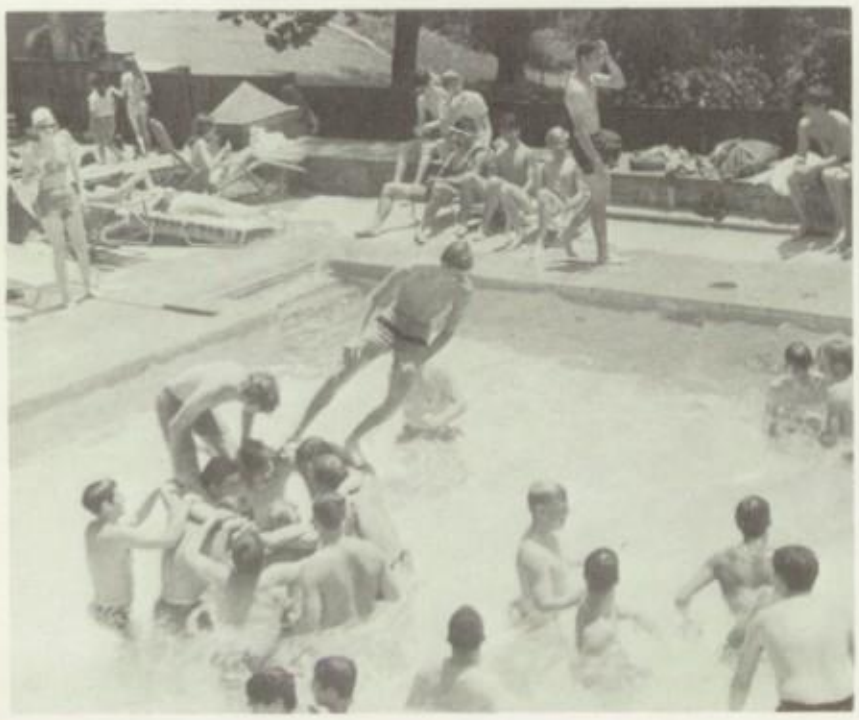
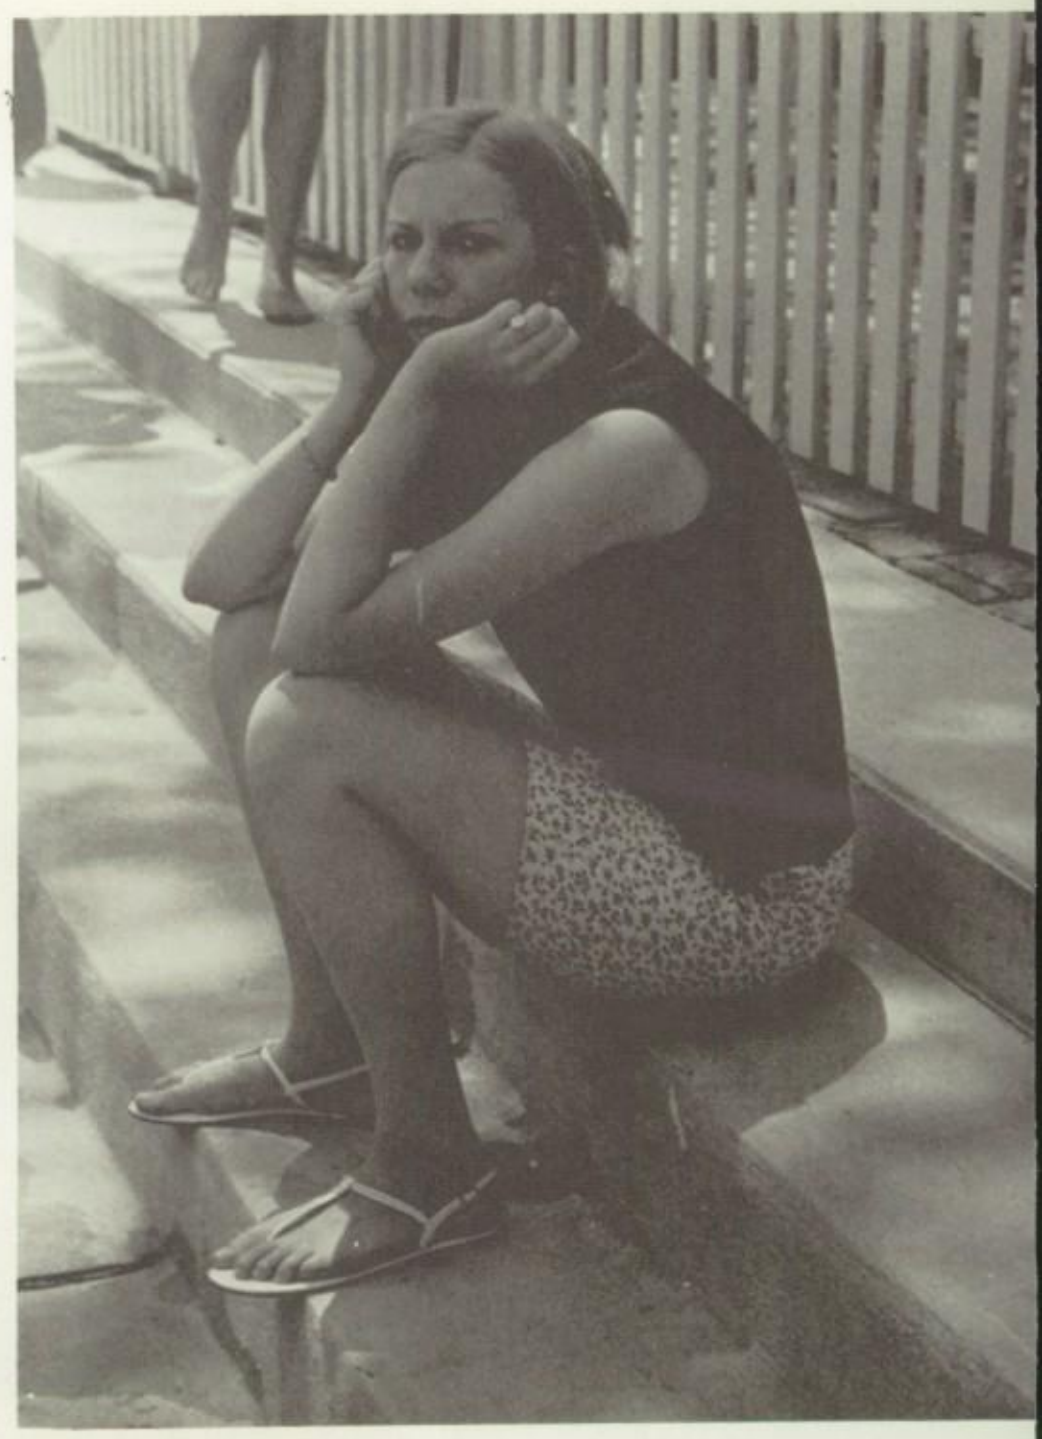
Allenberry Is the Scene of Senior Day

The last day as a whole ... swimming ... lost pocketbooks ... illicit liquor ... bursts of enthusiasm and some quiet thoughts ... plenty of food ... the bus rides ... exuberance, exhaustion, and memories.





(upper left) The human pyramid had a shaky start. (upper right) A lost pocketbook dampens Cindy Downs' senior day enthusiasm. (above left) What would senior day be without Miss Snell? (above right) A Trojan basks in the warm June sun.

The Class of 1969 Begins the End of the Beginning

The beginning of the end . . . rows of robed figures . . . follow the leader; after that you're on your own . . . the end of the beginning . . .

Yesterday
my heart was filled with tears
the world was filled with hate and everything seemed evil

Today
i laugh
i love
i see all the joys in the world and everything seems good

Tomorrow
what will tomorrow bring happiness . . . sorrow perhaps a better road to follow the choice is mine

the year, tossing, tumbling a life of living exploring each day
awakened senses—vital to the new, the change aware—Yes, there is a world trying to create a little world without —without hate without fear without prejudice hoping that our little world of peace will be the new world, tomorrow in our day
dreaming the impossible living the unreal is over moving over for a new school new dreams from new dreamers new hopes for a new tomorrow
a new change

I AM YOUR FLAG

By Thomas E. Wicks, Sr.

I AM YOUR FLAG.
I was born June 14, 1777.
I am more than just cloth shaped into a design.
I am the refuge of the world's oppressed people.
I am the silent sentinel of Freedom.
I am the emblem of the grearest sovereign nation, on earth.
I am the inspiration for which American Patriots gave their lives and fortunes.
I have led your sons into battle from Valley Forge to the bloody rice paddies of Vietnam.
I walk in silence with each of your Honored Dead to their final resting place beneath the silent white crosses, row upon row.
I have flown through peace and war, strife and prosperity, and amidst it all, I have been respected.
I AM YOUR FLAG.
My Red Stripes symbolize the blood spilled in defense of this Glorious Nation.
My White Stripes signify the burning tears shed by Americans who lost their sons.
My Blue Field is indicative of God's heaven, under which I fly.
My stars, clustered together, unify 50 states as one, for God and Country.
"Old Glory" is my nickname, and proudly I wave on high.
Honor me, respect me, defend me with your lives and your fortunes.
Never let my enemies tear me down from my lofty position, lest I never return.
Keep alight the fires of patriotism, strive earnestly for the spirit of democracy.
Worship Eternal God, and keep His Commandments, and I shall remain the bulwark of peace and freedom for all mankind.
I AM YOUR FLAG.

dear staff . . .

the absence of a typical "editor's letter" may cause you some concern . . . when something loses meaning; it must go . . . along with santa and the easter bunny . . . if i mention one . . . the other feels hurt . . . if i mention both . . . there is no longer any "specialness' in mentioning the one . . . achievement is its own reward . . .

to the ones who were always there . . . Thank you . . . to the ones who hid when there was work to be done . . . i'm glad it's over . . .

to the ones with the smiles even at deadline hour . . . Thank you . . . to the grim prophets of doom . . . i'm glad it's over . . .

to the faces i saw at meetings without fail . . . Thank you . . . to those who were five minutes late, and had to leave in five minutes, or just didn't come . . . i'm glad it's over . . .

to those who came and said (believe it or not) . . . what can i do? . . . Thank you . . . to those who had to be badgered into doing . . . i'm glad it's over . . .

to those who were not on the staff (in the "official" sense)—not that official matters . . . for services above and beyond duty . . . Thank you . . . to those who read this book with a closed mind (of stereotypes) . . . i'm glad i'm leaving you . . .

to the one with the cool, calm mind and the faith in my ability (why?) . . . Thank you . . .

to the one who introduced the new . . . taught the change . . . and withstood our ignorance . . . Thank you . . .

to the ONE who listened to my fears . . . my tears . . . comforted the pain of a deadline . . . and always . . . understood . . . my deepest thanks . . . i, like you . . . am glad it's over . . .
